FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, And all Connected with the Judicial Administration of the Government.

Of the State of ndiana, CONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references . judicial decisions. EDITED BY

JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD.

Volume 1, Published by BINGHAM & DOUGHTY,

INDIANAPOLIS. Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the following ecommendation of the work: STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD .- Some months ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for publishing, in two volumes octave of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconvenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as weil as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to thistime the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knowshow annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs. Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and copious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the ender of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all legislation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining Madison mail 11:00 A. vin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject of husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three acts ocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. A still more valuable feature are the copious and accurate notes contained in the volume in question.
